

Interior Alaska – The “Place” To Do Business

Suggested Criteria for Golden Citizens’ Senior Luncheon Awards

The following two awards are presented at the Golden Citizens’ Luncheon held on the Thursday of Golden Days Week every year:

- President’s Award —presented to a non-native recipient
- Chieftain’s Award —presented to a native recipient

There is no question that contributions from seniors greatly enhance our communities. These two awards have been designed to honor seniors active in the community who have helped make the Greater Fairbanks area a better place to live and work.

Criteria:

- Resident of the Interior of Alaska
- Community leaders with many years of service to their communities
- Help others
- Demonstrate exemplary leadership, creativity, cooperation, and hard work
- Make outstanding contributions to their community, state or nation
- 65+ years of age, or considered an elder
- Not have received the award before - or – not have received the award in last 10 years

How Can You Nominate a Golden Citizen:

Please answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper.

- What organizations does the nominee actively participate in?
- List any national, state or local awards they may have earned (include dates if possible).
- Describe in approximately 300-500 words the business or volunteer contributions made by the nominee to the growth of the Chamber and community.
- What contributions have they made to the economic growth and strength of our community?
